The Conductors Guild announces Jonathan Sternberg to receive Award for Lifetime Service.

The Conductors Guild announces Jonathan Sternberg as a recipient of the Lifetime Service Award in recognition of long-standing service to the art and profession of conducting. The Conductors Guild, with a membership of over 1,850 members representing all fifty United States and more than thirty other countries, is the only music service organization devoted exclusively to the advancement of the art of conducting and to serving the artistic and professional needs of conductors.

Maestro Sternberg, who as conducted orchestras all over the world and has impacted the lives of students from many countries, has provided the profession with numerous corrected editions of standard orchestral literature, embodying insights from a life spent in close examination of this music. He has also served the Conductors Guild for many years as Editor-at-Large and has written articles on various topics for the Guild's publication Podium Notes. In grateful appreciation for this long time service, The Conductors Guild Lifetime Service Award includes a lifetime membership in the Guild for Maestro Sternberg.

The award will be presented to Jonathan Sternberg at the Annual Conference for Conductors in New York, NY, January 10, 2009 at the Park Central Hotel. For more information on this award or the Annual Conference, please visit our website: www.conductorsguild.org or contact Amanda Winger at guild@conductorsguild.org or 804-553-1378.
