

Bach Vespers at Holy Trinity presents

Bach Sommerfest 2010

July 23-25

The theme is:

THE KING AND QUEEN OF CHORALES

Featuring two of Johann Sebastian's most beloved cantatas:

BWV 140 – Wachet auf, ruft uns die Stimme (Wake, Awake)

&

BWV 1 – Wie schön leuchtet der Morgenstern
(How Brightly Shines the Morning Star)

A mid-summer celebration of one of the most important and cherished features of Bach's music—the use of the chorale in his cantatas and related works.

Schedule

Friday, July 23

5:30 p.m. PRE-CONCERT TALK Prof. Mark Bighley "History of the Lutheran Chorale"
7:00 p.m. ORGAN CONCERT: "Preludes on Lutheran Chorales" (Sugg. Donation: $10 at the door)

Saturday, July 24

5:30 p.m. PRE-VESPERSTALK Prof. Michael Marissen on BWV 140
7:00 p.m. BACHVESPERS featuring Cantata 140 -Wachet auf (Free-will offering during the service)

Sunday, July 25

9:30 a.m. PRE-SERVICETALK Prof. Michael Marissen on BWV 1
11:00 a.m. HOLY EUCHARIST featuring Cantata 1 Wie schön leuchtet der Morgenstern
(Free-will offering during the service)

Presented by BACH VESPERS
at HOLY TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH
65th Street & CPW in NYC
212- 877-6815 www.bachvespersnyc.org

Feel free to dress casually for warm weather. Like Bach's churches in Leipzig, Holy Trinity is not air-conditioned!

All are welcome!