Saturday, March 7, 2009—1 p.m. to 4 p.m.—Symposium
Sunday, March 8, 2009—9:30 a.m.
Portions of Lutheran Masses in F Major and A Major during morning worship, followed by Q&A with panelists

Join us for a symposium and service, "Bach, the Mass and the Modern Church," to take place over two days. In the symposium, panelists will discuss how Bach's sacred music continues to move congregations and others spiritually, more than 250 years after the composer's death. During the Sunday service, segments of the Lutheran Masses will be performed by members of the Boulder Bach Festival Chorus.

Location: Atonement Lutheran Church, 685 Inca Pkwy. at Baseline Rd., Boulder
FREE and open to the public

Moderator/host: Timothy Snyder, Director of Music, Worship and Outreach, Atonement Lutheran Church
Panelists: Timothy Krueger, Joyce Shupe Kull, Ron Roschke and Bob Spillman

The Lutheran Masses represent Bach's most glorious music and contain his more moving and powerful cantata movements.

Friday, March 13, 2009—7:30 p.m.
Brandenburg No. 5; Concerto for Two Violins; Lutheran Mass in F Major

Timothy Krueger
Chorus Dir. & Conductor

Saturday, March 14, 2009—7:30 p.m.
Brandenburg No. 3 in G Major; Harpsichord Concerto No. 2; Lutheran Mass in A Major

Don't miss the free pre-concert Bach Encounters presented by Larry Worster at 6:30 p.m. both nights!

Timothy Krueger, Boulder Bach Festival chorus director and founder/artistic director of St. Martin's Chamber Choir in Denver, auditioned and prepared the BBF chorus for last season's St. John Passion. This season he will again prepare the chorus and will conduct both Lutheran Masses.

Krista Bennion Feeny, Concertmaster/Leader & Soloist

Krista Bennion Feeny, concertmaster of the Orchestra of St. Luke's and the Mostly Mozart Festival, both in New York City, will serve as guest concertmaster for the Festival and will be soloist and leader of the instrumental works, including the Concerto for Two Violins in D minor and the Brandenburg No. 3 in G Major.

"Krista Bennion Feeny, the concertmistress, played the violin solo in 'Erbarme dich' (Bach's St. Matthew Passion) with lovely tone and feeling." ~The New York Times

"Bach is the supreme genius of music... This man, who knows everything and feels everything, cannot write one note, however unimportant it may appear, which is anything but transcendent. He has reached the heart of every noble thought..." ~Pablo Casals
