

LAKE CHELAN BACH FEST

VOLUME 4, ISSUE 1

2005 Bach Fest - July 9th through 17th

NOVEMBER 2004

PAVILION CONCERT A HIT WITH AUDIENCE

The first Bach Fest Concert in Chelan's new Riverwalk Pavilion was a great success.

We played to a receptive audience of over 300 people, and welcomed not only our regular Festival Audience but reached new people as well. One of our objectives is to attract those people who are in Chelan but don't know that Bach Fest is being presented and who are not aware of the wide variety of music being performed.

Our Music Director summed it up when he observed, "the magic really began when the sun set and dusk set in", and the music wafted over the audience seated on the sloping lawn on the Pavilion.

Largest Audience ever at a Pavilion Performance

The performance was enjoyed by our very appreciative audience and by the performers as well. It was truly a night to remember.

You can look forward to more outdoor concerts at future Festivals, as we build on the success and popularity of the 2004 evening in the Pavilion.

MUSIC IN THE GARDEN OF ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

People strolling through Chelan in the forenoon on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of Bach Fest week were treated to informal performances, in the Garden of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, by our Festival Musicians. We had Volunteers available to explain about Bach Fest and provide information about other performances throughout the week.

The audiences grew throughout the week as word spread about the "free" performances. We have decided to provide these next year each weekday of the Bach Fest week.

Come by, at 10:30am on Monday through Friday of Bach Fest week, and enjoy the entertainment, ranging from light classical, to jazz to folk music, in a lovely setting.

Volunteers Always Needed

Got an urge to be involved with Bach Fest? We always need volunteers for the many tasks associated with producing our Festival.

In addition, we have positions open on the Bach Fest Board of Directors, where you can take an active year round part in Bach Fest. Use the form on page 2 to indicate your interest.

TSILLAN CELLARS FUND RAISER AN ARTISTIC SUCCESS

The 2004 Bach Fest Fund Raiser was held at Chelan's exciting Tsillan Cellars Winery.

The weather was wonderful, and the catered supper, excellent wine and an hour long program were enjoyed by everyone in attendance.

The local jazz sextet, known as the Red Coats were joined by vocalists Arlene and Doug Phillip from the Tacoma Area.

The Red Coats include Kathryn Castrodale on Piano, Joey Castellega on drums, Bob Soost on Tenor Sax, Bob Myers on Trumpet and Flugelhorn, and Vocalists

Sharon LaMar and Dixon Ervin.

If you missed this delightful evening, make plans now to attend the 2005 Fund Raiser on June 4. You will have an exceptional evening and help Bach Fest continue to bring beautiful music to Chelan and the surrounding area.

Use the form below to request an invitation. You won't want to miss this gala event on June 4, 2005 at Tsillan Cellars Winery.

REMEMBRANCES SOUGHT FOR 25TH ANNIVERSARY BOOK

In recognition of our 25th Anniversary in 2006, we plan to produce a Commemorative Book, with memories from the 25 years of the Festival, which started with Cora Hartley's "Sunday Afternoons at 3, and has developed into over 2 decades of orchestral, choral and chamber music performed each summer in Chelan. If you have a special memory from years past, we'd appreciate hearing from you. Our address is P.O. Box 554, Chelan WA 98816
